BLDTR26-001618	Applied: 4/3/2026 Issued: Expire:	Trades	Electrical	Replace existing 200-amp subpanel with a new 200-amp subpanel. Install a new 100-amp critical loads subpanel (sub-subpanel) to serve essential circuits. The new 100-amp subpanel will be fed from the (new/replaced) main subpanel via a 60-amp double-pole breaker using 6/3 NM-B copper cable as the feeder. Relocate 13 existing branch circuits (all 15-amp or 20-amp single-pole circuits) from the main subpanel to the new critical loads subpanel. All work to be performed in accordance with the 2023 Florida Building Code, National Electrical Code (NEC), and local amendments. We are in the process of requesting the necessary permit from the city. It is essential that we obtain approval and receive a permit number before commencing any work. The planned work involves digging 4 feet down next to the control box, cutting and terminating the feed coming from the well, and capping it off. Following this, we will install a 90-degree connection and route it back to the control box. Please note that the house is situated on a hill, with the irrigation system located at the bottom of the slope. ROW25-000263	Applied: 10/28/2025 Issued: Expire:	Right of Way - Utility Installation	Right of Way - Utility Installation	We are going to be working on segment 1 of the Hudson Creek offsite utilities. We are waiting on 100% plans and material lead time, but I want to have everything we need in place so we can get going swiftly. I am planning on using typical FDOT setups for the entire project. We plan to leave the MOT in place 24 hours a day to complete the work in the timeliest manner. We will have 2 crews working on both utilities at the same time so we will have both the WB side lane 2 and EB side lane 1 closed. I am working to get a lay down yard as near to the project as possible for material storage. There may or may not be a Jack and Bore going under El Dorado depending on pricing and lead time we may consider directional drilling it. I will be the contact for the project, and we will also have a superintendent that I can pass along once we get to work.
